- 1) Welcome/Call to Order at 6:05 pm
- 2) Approval of Agenda by consensus
- 3) Acceptance of December minutes by consensus
- 4) District Reports
  - a.) Andy Leathwood:
    - Today was first "Read by 3" training for around 90 elementary school teachers and education assistants, with training continuing tomorrow. The new Early Learning website will have information available for the public.
    - Discussed the CommunityLink funding and the criteria to help struggling children. Poverty continues to be a big issue in our school district so the district has several initiatives underway to help children and families:
      - Vulnerable youth discussions with Ministry of Children and Family Development in the areas of drug and alcohol and mental health issues
      - Expansion of the art therapy program in the Slocan Valley through WE Graham Community Services Society
      - Salmo art therapy has a support group for boys with anxiety
      - Meaningful after school activities in Creston for at risk youth that don't require travel or admission fees. This is an important initiative as it provides a place for children to go between after school and when parents get home from work. An outreach worker is on site to reach these youth.

- A question was asked about why there aren't more breakfast programs? Andy shared some schools have corporate sponsorship to provide a program while others have the help of local church groups. The district is working with the Health Promoting Schools Coordinator Louise Poole to ensure food quality and nutritional value of any school meal program.

5) School Reports

- Mt. Sentinel – Exam week starting January 28; Ski day at Red Mountain on Thursday January 31; the Intermediate Class is participating in the Destination Imagination program.
- Rosemont – movie night is coming up; the second cross country ski day was a great success
- Trafalgar – second downhill ski day went well; Nelson Youth Theater will be presenting “Zombie Apocalypse”
- Brent Kennedy – downhill ski program started for the Grades 5/6 with a winter program for the remainder of the school; there won't be a Christmas dinner this year instead there will be a luau in February for the whole school.
